

Insert HA Logo

Subcutaneous Immune Globulin (SCIG) Home Infusion Patient/Caregiver Post-Training Quiz

Patient's Name:: _____

Date of Birth: _____

Medical Record Number: _____

PHN: _____

Ordering Physician: _____

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. What does subcutaneous mean?

2. Why is it important to use aseptic (sterile) technique?

3. What should you do if an unused needle is accidentally touched?

4. List four things that you should always check on the SCIG vial before using.

5. List four things to remember when selecting and preparing the infusion site.

6. At what angle should you insert the needle?

7. How do you check to make sure that the needle has not entered a blood vein?

8. What should you do if you notice blood flowing back into the tubing?

9. How should you secure the needle in place?

10. What should you do if you experience a headache or other mild reaction during the infusion?

11. What should you do if you experience severe itching or other moderate reaction?

12. What should you do if you experience extreme dizziness or other severe reaction?

13. What should you do with used vials, needles and syringes?

14. Why is it important to record the details of your infusion?

15. How should SCIG be stored?

Quiz reviewed by educator with patient/caregiver on _____ (date)

Signed _____ Educator

Signed _____ Patient / Caregiver (circle)